Rules under Section 49 (a) of the City Municipalities ~~Regulation~~, 1933, for regulating the Conduct of Business at Meetings of the Davangere City Municipal Council.

--oOo--

1. Short Title - These rules may be cited as "The Rules for the Conduct of Business in the ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ Davangere City Municipal Council."

2 Meetings when to be held.- The meetings of the Municipal Councillors shall, except for reasons to be specified in the notice convening the meeting, be - held at the Municipal Office The Ordinary General meeting for each month shall be held on the first Saturday of the month at 8 A.M. or on such date and at such time as may seem expedient to the President

3 At the ~~xxxxx~~ hour fixed for a meeting of the - Councillors if a quorum be present, the business of the meeting may at once commence, and, if neither the President nor the Vice-President be present, the Councillors may proceed at once to choose a presiding Councillor ~~xx~~ under Section 27 (5). If the President or the Vice-President arrives after a presiding - Councillor has been chosen by the Councillors, the presiding Councillor shall leave the chair and the President or the Vice-President shall preside

4. If at the hour fixed for the meeting quorum be not present, the presiding authority shall allow 30 minutes to elapse before he adjourns the meeting and if 30 minutes from the hour fixed for the - meeting elapse without the assembling of a quorum, the meeting shall stand adjourned to that day week at the same time and place

5 If after the commencement of business the - presiding authority notices that a quorum is not - present, or any Councillor calls the attention of the presiding authority to the fact that a quorum is not present, the presiding authority shall immediately suspend business, and shall count the number of - Councillors present, and if that number be insufficient to form a quorum, the presiding authority shall adjourn the meeting.

6. Confirmation of minutes of previous meetings - At the commencement of the proceedings of each ordinary general meeting, the minutes of the last previous meeting shall be read and confirmed. If any Councillor present objects to the minutes as having been incorrectly or incompletely recorded, the presiding authority shall, after taking the sense of the meeting make such amendments as he thinks proper and the amended minutes shall then be confirmed and signed by the presiding authority

7 Language to be used - The proceedings may be conducted either in English or in Kannada

8 Speeches.- (a) A councillor wishing to speak shall rise in his place The Councillor who first rises to speak has the right to be heard In cases of doubt, the presiding authority shall decide who is entitled to speak. No interruption to the speech of a Councillor shall be permitted, except that the presiding authority may call the Councillor to order and any other Councillor may rise and request the - the presiding authority to call the speaker to order or to notice that a quorum is not present

(b) All questions from one Councillor to - another relating to the business of the meeting shall be put through the presiding authority

(c) A councillor shall not read his speech, but may refresh his memory from notes and may, with the - consent of the presiding authority, read passages from books or documents cited in sup ort of his ax argument.

9 Each Councillor rising to speak shall direct his speech to the question before the meeting or an amendment which he is himself about to propose or to a point of order, always addressing the presiding authority from his place A Councillor having spoken to a proposition or amendment is not at liberty to speak again to such amendment proposition or amendment

Provided that the mover of a proposition or amendment shall have a right of reply, after the presiding authority has ascertained that no other Councillor entitled to speak desires to speak.

Provided also, that any Councillor may second a proposition or amendment by saying " I second the proposition or amendment" and may reserve his right to speak later.

Provided also, that a Councillor who wishes to explain any misconception of expressions used by him may do so with the permission of the presiding authority

10. Order.- (a) The presiding authority shall preserve order.

(b) All points of order shall be summarily decided by him, no discussion thereon being allowed, unless he shall think fit to take the opinion of the Councillors present.

(c) Councillor called to order to resume his seat - Councillor called to order by the presiding authority shall resume his seat till the decision of the point of order is raised: provided that the presiding authority may allow the Councillor to speak on the point of order is raised. If any Councillor desires to dispute the decision of the presiding - authority, he may bring forward a proposition at the following meeting.

(d) The presiding authority may adjourn any meeting which refuses to obey his ruling on a - point of order.

11. Routine Resolutions.- Routine resolutions, such as recording periodical statements or confirming the proceedings of a committee, may be put to the meeting by the presiding authority without their having been moved or seconded. Proposition regarding the choice of a presiding Councillor, adjournment and the like must be seconded, but needhot be in writing.

12. Propositions and Amendments.- (a) Except as proposition which does not directly arise from the discussion of a subject properly before the meetings.

~~xxxx~~

12. Propositions and Amendments.- (a) Except as provided in the last rule, every proposition and amendment shall be handed by the proposer in writing in English or Kannada to the presiding authority and should also be seconded.

(b) No Councillor shall be entitled to move a proposition which does not directly arise from the discussion of a subject properly before the meetings.

(c) If a Councillor who has given notice of a proposition is for any reason unable or unwilling to move the same, any other Councillor present may move it with the consent of the presiding authority.

13. Division and Grouping of propositions.- (a) The presiding authority shall have the power to divide into two or more distinct propositions, any proposition or amendment which in his opinion is so complicated as to be likely to lead to confusion or inconvenience by being debated on as one proposition.

(b) A proposition or amendment which is divided need not be separately moved and seconded.

(c) When the business before the Council is a budget estimate, a supplementary budget, a proposition for the re-appropriation of funds, a set of rules or bye-laws, a list of lands proposed to be sold or acquired, a list of items for remission, a list of arrears, a statement of accounts or the consideration of the Municipal Administration - report or any other matter comprising a number - of items, the presiding authority shall group the ~~items in the presiding authority shall group the~~ items in such a manner as may seem convenient to him and without any mover or seconder, propose to the meeting in respect of each group in succession that the group be passed.

(d) If no objection is raised by any Councillor, the group shall be considered as sanctioned by the meeting.

(e) But if any alteration is proposed and seconded, it shall be dealt with in accordance with the rules applicable to the consideration of amendments: (1) provided that the presiding authority shall have power to put any particular item separately before the meeting, and to sub-divide or re-arrange the groups; (2) provided also that if on the sense of the meeting being taken by the - presiding authority, all the Councillors present are of opinion that no item or group of items - need be considered separately, the whole question shall be dealt with as one proposition

14. The proposer of any amendment shall state it or hand it in writing to the presiding authority at any time before he resumes his seat. When the mover of a proposition or amendment has - resumed his seat, the presiding authority shall read the proposition or amendment to the meeting and ask if any Councillor seconds it, ~~and until the proposition or amendment to the meeting and ask if any Councillor seconds it,~~ and until the proposition or amendment is seconded, the presiding authority shall not permit any discussion on on the question. If no Councillor seconds the proposition or amendment, the presiding authority shall declare that the proposition or amendment is lost.

15. Resolution of the Committee.- When a resolution of the Managing or other Committee is submitted to the meeting for adoption, its adoption should ordinarily be moved and seconded by members of the Committee.

16. Amendments.- (a) After a proposition has been moved and seconded, any Councillor may propose ~~as~~ an amendment thereto.

(b) All amendments intended to be moved to any proposition shall be handed over in writing to the presiding authority immediately after the seconder of the proposition has resumed his seat and no amendment not so handed over shall be permitted to be moved ~~xxx~~ except with the permission of the meeting

(c) Form of Amendment.- An amendment shall usually be in the form of a proposal for a variation of the original proposition, an addition thereto or an omission therefrom. Every amendment must be relevant to the proposition it is proposed to amend and must be framed so as to form therewith an intelligible and consistent sentence. An amendment which is the direct negative of the proposition shall not be allowed

(d) Any number of amendments may be before the meeting at the same time, but no member shall propose more than one amendment to the same ~~xxxxxx~~ proposition except when such proposition is for the passing of a budget or of a set of general rules, or is otherwise of such a nature that it consists of several portions which may require amendment

(e) No amendment to words already resolved upon to be made.- No amendment may be made to words which, it has already been resolved, shall stand part of, or be added to, the original proposition or amendment, except by addition of other words.

(f) Amendment once negatived not to be proposed.- No amendment may be proposed which is the same in substance, as a proposition or an amendment which has been negatived during that meeting.

(g) A proposition or amendment which has been moved and seconded shall not be withdrawn without the permission of the meeting

17. (a) After a proposition has been proposed and seconded, the proposed amendments which the President or the presiding authority has received, shall be arranged in the order in which, if agreed to, each would stand in the amended proposition, and if any more proposed amendments are stated or handed to the presiding authority, they shall be inserted in that order and the presiding authority shall call upon the proposers of amendments in that order to move their amendments.

(b) Each amendment to be ~~voted~~ decided before the next is entered upon.- Each amendment must be decided before the next amendment is entered upon but after any amendment has been proposed and seconded, any Councillor may move that the amendment be amended by the omission, insertion ~~or amendment be amended by the omission, insertion~~ or addition of a certain word or words and the presiding authority shall thereupon ask if any other Councillor seconds the proposal and if seconded, the proposal to amend the amendment shall then become the question before the meeting

(c) When any amendment is accepted by the mover or x carried by the meeting, the proposition in its amended form shall then become the question before the meeting and may be discussed before bein voted upon

14. Motions, etc., by the presiding authority.- The presiding authority may move and second propositions or amendments, speak and vote without vacating the chair.

15. Proposal to adjourn or postpone.- The proposal to adjourn a meeting or postpone the consideration of- a question shall take precedence of any other proposition before the meeting.

20. Closure.- (a) When a question has been under discussion for not less than one hour, the presiding authority or any two members (as mover and seconder) may propose that such a question be put to vote forthwith.

(b) Such proposal for closure shall then be put to vote without discussion and if it is carried, the original proposition and amendments, if any, which are before the meeting shall at once be put to vote.

21. Voting.- (a) When a question is put to vote, the presiding authority shall call for a show of hands, and the presiding authority or a Councillor at his request shall count the hands shown for and against and declare the result. If any Councillor challenges the correctness of the numbers thus declared, the hands shall be counted a second time, provided that if any two Councillors request a poll, the presiding authority shall call the roll of the Councillors and record, in the minutes of the meeting, the names of the xxxx -

the Councillors voting for and against

(b) Taking Votes by ballot.- Votes on any question may be taken by a ballot if the meeting decides.

(c) Casting Vote.- The presiding authority unless he refrains from voting shall give his vote before declaring the number of votes for and against the question, and then in case of an equality of votes, he shall give his casting vote.

(d) A councillor who is present at a meeting may refrain from voting

(e) Result of ~~xxx~~ Equality of Votes.- When there is an equality of votes and the presiding authority refrains from giving his casting vote, the proposition shall be held to be neither passed nor rejected and may be brought forward at any subsequent meeting.

(f) If the question before the meeting be the confirmation of a report or the proceedings ~~of the confirmation of a report or the proceedings~~ of a Committee, the members of that Committee may vote. If the conduct of a Councillor be in question, that Councillor may vote.

22. (a) Votes for the appointments of Committees and Officers shall always be taken by ballot Each Councillor present shall be entitled to vote for as many candidates as there are vacancies to be filled. But ~~xxx~~ he shall not be entitled to give more than one vote to any candidate.

(b) When votes are taken by ballot, each Councillor shall directly record his vote in writing in such manner as the presiding authority may prescribe. The paper on which the vote is recorded shall not be signed by the voter and shall not be seen by any person except the presiding authority and the tellers appointed by him. Such papers shall be destroyed immediately after the result of the voting is declared.

22. Budget Discussion.- When votes are taken by ballot, each Councillor shall directly record his vote in writing in such manner a the presiding authority may prescribed

23. Budget Discussion.- When a budget estimate or a supplementary budget or re-appropriation statement is laid before a council meeting, the procedure shall be as follows:-

(a) The presiding authority shall read each item of the abstracts of receipts and expenditure and shall without any mover or seconder, put to the meeting, the question "that xx this item stand part of the budget or re-appropriation statement."

(b) If any Councillor proposes to reduce or increase or strike off the item and the proposal be seconded, such proposal shall be treated as an amendment and shall become the question before the meeting.

24. Councillors may resolve into Committee at general meeting.- At any general meeting of the Council, the Councillors may resolve themselves into a committee to consider any subject which is before the meeting. In such a Committee, a proposition need not be seconded and a Councillor may speak more than once. The decision of the committee shall be reported to that meeting or to a subsequent meeting for confirmation.

25. Minutes to be recorded under supervision of the President.- The rough minutes of all proceedings of meetings must be taken down in a bound volume at the time of discussion.

~~26. Right of President to address meeting.-~~

26. ...ght of President to address Meeting.- ...e presiding authority may address the meeting at any stage of the debate.
